You Bet Your Life.

LONDON, Dec. 7.—Clare Sewell Read, who went to America recently to inquire into American agriculture, in addressing the Farmers' club, of London, said he would not fear American competition in wheat twenty-five years hence, as the exhaustion of the land would ensue in that time, and the last of the production would increase. But in regard to beef there were serious prospects of competition from the vast herds of cattle in the far west. Read said he deemed it likely the American nation would become the greatest in the world.

Base Ball—Horrible Fatal Shooting.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 7.—Colonel Lew the movement by depriving the peo-ment. But, he continued, nothing now could put down the agitation until the tiller of the sail becomes its owner. Parnell charged the government with entering into a conspiracy

LONDON, Dec. 7.—The Pall Mall Gazette says: "Chief Justice May's language is significant and instructive in the highest degree. It has been condemned, even by conservative papers in England, where there is no country justice who would not be ashamed of such partiality. It shows that the peasants in Ireland are not the only people who need to have the sacredness of the law instilled into them."

Death of a Good Man.

Political malice has ceased, or pretended to cease, at the portal of the grave of this good old man. Blue Jeans Williams is prettily the sincerest mourner over his remains.
If men who do this class of infamous detraction have any conscience, it should give them trouble; and if they have any self-respect, it is difficult to see how they can help hating themselves as heartily as they are hated and despised by the decent element of the community in which they exist. New lamps, new hand painted
